

PRESS RELEASE
April 20, 2022

Manu Madhok, Superintendent of Schools, is pleased to announce the following addition to the administrative team effective August 1, 2022.

Kim Repko will be joining David Hoy Elementary in Fort St. James in the new Vice-Principal position. Kim was born and raised in Fort St. James and has been a teacher at David Hoy for the past twenty-three years. Currently, she is an Inclusive Education Resource teacher and a member of the School Growth Plan and School-Based Team committees. Prior to joining the David Hoy staff, Kim taught at Sowchea Elementary, Eugene Joseph Elementary, and Middle River.

Kim graduated from Simon Fraser University in 1994 and completed her Master's in Leadership and Administration from Gonzaga University in 2006. She has a broad background in primary and intermediate teaching and inclusive education training. Her knowledge in literacy, numeracy and Social-Emotional (SEL) instruction will be an asset in her new position.

Manu Madhok commented that "Kim's experience and commitment will benefit the school, community and district. It is exciting to see another long-time local educator moving into a formal leadership position."

Kim will join Principal Suzanne Burck and the rest of the staff to continue the important work on strategic goals for student success.
